5. Service Provider obligations

5.1 Commencement of Service: The relevant Business Mobile Service shall commence from the service connection date.

5.2 Service Availability and Limits:

5.2.1 Certain factors, such as network changes, traffic volume, transmission limits, service outages, technical limitations, signal strength, customer device, terrain, structures, weather, or other conditions that may arise from time to time, may interfere with actual service quality and availability. Calls may be interrupted, dropped, refused or limited. Qtel will not be liable for any service limits due to these conditions that may arise from time to time, subject to Qtel's statutory and licence obligations and requirements.

5.2.2 The service is only available when the User's Mobile Device is within a mobile coverage area.

5.2.3 While Roaming, the service is only available in areas that are covered by Qtel roaming partners. Qtel is not responsible for those networks and some services may not be available while Roaming. Qtel does not make any representations regarding the quality of service or reliability experienced by Users while Roaming.

6. Customer obligations

- 6.1 Equipment: With the exception of the SIM Card, the subscriber may acquire the equipment that they intend to use to receive the service from Qtel from a third-party, provided that all equipment used to connect to Qtel's networks and facilities is in compliance with the technical standards and specifications described in the Qtel General Terms and Conditions.
- 6.2 The customer shall comply with any reasonable request by Qtel concerning the configuration of handsets, SIM cards and/or the use of the service. Qtel may require the subscriber to submit information reasonably related to the service, devices or SIM cards.
- 6.3 SIM Card: It is the subscriber's responsibility to keep safe SIM cards that are provided to the subscriber. SIM Cards are easily damaged and should be handled with care. The subscriber must promptly notify Qtel if SIM cards are damaged. In the event of loss or theft of a customer SIM card, the subscriber must notify Qtel within forty-eight (48) hours of becoming aware of such loss or theft. The subscriber may be charged in the event of loss or theft for replacement of the SIM card.
- 6.4 Assignment of service: The subscriber undertakes to use the service personally and for their private interest, and shall not transfer the service or assign it to a third party without obtaining Qtel's prior written consent.
- 6.5 Billing: The customer must notify Qtel of a change of customer billing address within 14 days.
