104. Conditions of provision by the Business Customer

104.1 The Broadband Service is available with a minimum of 25 lines (REDACTED) per individual Business Customer⁵;

104.2 Ooredoo may as per Article 3.9 of the Retail Tariff Instructions (“RTI”) offer a discount of up to 20% on the Broadband Service. In such cases, a twelve (12) month commitment period will apply for the Business Customer. If the Broadband Service is terminated by the Business Customer during the 12-month period, Ooredoo will charge back all the discounts offered until that date. Under no circumstances, the Business Customers are allowed to recover such termination charges from the End users.

104.3 For those Business Customers who committed to a twelve (12) month commitment period, at the signature of the contract, the Business Customers will be notified in writing by Ooredoo that they may either commit to another twelve (12) month contract period in exchange for a discount or they may move to a monthly contract without any discount⁶.

105. The table below includes the Termination Charges

	Minimum service period	Cost recovery period for Wi-Fi access point and STB	Monthly rental for services	Setup box	Wi-Fi Access point
Standard Tariff	First 3 months	12 months	Before minimum service period a. Customer	During 12-month period 1.Pay pro-rated part of hardware price (QAR 840) and keep the device 2.or return the device to Ooredoo without additional charges After 12month period 1.No charges

5 A request for more than (REDACTED) per Business Customer requires CRA approval.

6 For the avoidance of doubt, the Business Customer must inform Ooredoo in writing of its choice. If a Business Customer does not inform Ooredoo in writing by the end of their 12-month commitment period, the Business Customer will be moved to a monthly contract without any discount upon completion of their 12-month commitment period.

106. The offer can be procured by Business Customers via Ooredoo business sales account representatives.
107. The Business Customer subscribes to the Broadband Service and pays all fees included in Table 12 or Table 1 above. The purpose of subscription is to provide a Broadband Service at the End User’s place of residence (rental accommodation).
108. Prior to offering the service to an End User the Business Customer must sign an agreement (“Agreement”) with Ooredoo agreeing to compliance with the CLASS LICENSE for the Resale of Retail Telecommunications Services, Version 3 dated June 20, 2022, (ref. CRARAC2022/06/20-1) by not offering the Broadband Service to an End User for sale or lease in return for a direct or indirect fee. The Agreement must be provided to the CRA by Ooredoo upon request by the CRA. It is the responsibility of Ooredoo to ensure the Business Customer’s continued compliance with the Agreement for the term of the contract between Ooredoo and the Business Customer.

C05-03 Ooredoo Next Gen

109. Prior to a rental agreement being signed between an End User and a Business Customer the Business Customer must inform, in writing, the Ender User of the availability of the Broadband Service at their place of residence including (but not limited to):
- 109.1 the availability of the Broadband Service for use by the End User at their residential premise and that the Broadband Service is not being sold or leased on a commercial basis to the End User.
 - 109.2 all terms and conditions associated with the Broadband Service.
 - 109.3 their right not to take the Broadband Service from the Business Customer.
 - 109.4 if they decide not to take the Broadband Service, their right to take a broadband service from an alternative service provider.
110. An End User who decides to take the Broadband Service from the Business Customer, must be informed, in writing, by the Business Customer and prior to signing any rental agreement with the Business Customer of:
- 110.1 their requirement to contact the Business Customer (or an authorized representative of the Business Customer) for all customer service enquiries related to the Broadband Service such as:
 - (a) Plan changes.
 - (b) Technical issues or hardware issues.
 - (c) Complaints (complaints directed to either against Ooredoo or for submission to the CRA).
 - (d) Terminate of the Broadband Service. If they terminate their Broadband Service, the right to take a broadband service from an alternative service provider.
 - 110.2 their requirement to contact Ooredoo Customer Service to request
 - (a) Additional paid services from Ooredoo (at the expense of the End User) to be delivered over the Broadband Service e.g., OSN pack, BeIN Sport, etc.
 - (b) (Where applicable) additional paid services (at the expense of the End User) from an alternative service provider e.g., streaming services from Netflix etc.
111. For avoidance of doubt, no exclusivity agreement for the provision of the Broadband Service by Ooredoo only at the Business Customer's premises can be agreed between Ooredoo and the Business Customer.

C05-03 Ooredoo Next Gen

- 112. It is the responsibility of Ooredoo to ensure the Business Customer maintains all required records of the End User to ensure compliance with the security requirements of the State of Qatar with respect to the use of telecommunications equipment by an individual within Qatar.
- 113. Fair Usage Policy: The Service is provided to the subscriber as 'unlimited' fiber broadband access subject to a 'Fair Usage Policy' found at www.Ooredoo.qa.

7 Service provider obligations

- 122. Some or all fiber broadband services may not be available in the subscriber's area, their specific location or may not be compatible with their specific landline connection. In order to verify that Ooredoo can provide this service, Ooredoo will need to do the following:
- 123. Verify that the subscriber's landline is in an area where they can receive broadband services.
- 124. Verify that the technical characteristics of the subscriber's landline can support broadband services which may require performing a landline test.
- 125. Ooredoo is responsible for servicing and providing technical maintenance of the service. Ooredoo will not provide any maintenance of the subscriber's equipment, including any additional equipment necessary to connect the service. Ooredoo is not responsible for any delays caused in installation due to the subscriber's absence at the agreed installation date or time.
- 126. Ooredoo may, if necessary to protect the network system, suspend, terminate or downgrade a particular broadband service.

8 Subscriber obligations

- 127. Minimum service period: The minimum service period for the fiber broadband service is three (3) months commencing from the date of activation of service. Subscribers terminating before the end of the minimum service period, will be liable to pay any outstanding monthly recurring charges for the full minimum service period.
- 128. Subscribers are responsible for backing-up their entire systems before broadband installation takes place and ensuring that the software installed in their computer equipment (and other devices) is compatible with the service and related software.
- 129. Equipment: With the exception of the CPE equipment provided by Ooredoo, the subscriber may also acquire the equipment that they intend to use to receive the service from a third-party, provided that all equipment used to connect to Ooredoo's networks and facilities is approved by CRA and is compliant with current requirements for technical standards and specifications. Ooredoo's General Terms and Conditions for Consumer Services, Article 11 (Connecting Subscriber Equipment).

C05-03 Ooredoo Next Gen

130. The Subscriber shall comply with any reasonable request by Ooredoo concerning the configuration of their devices and/or the use of the service.
131. Ooredoo may require the subscriber to submit information reasonably related to the service or their connected data devices.
132. The subscriber undertakes to use the service personally and for their private interest, and shall not transfer the service or assign it to a third party without obtaining Ooredoo's prior written consent.
